REMEMBER 1.. That the Annual Election in this State takes place THIS DAY.

11. That the Polls of Election will be Opened at SUN-RISE and Closed at SUNSET.

III. That the Election continues For One Day Only.

IV. That the names of all candidates must be printed on a SINGLE TICKET.

V. That he a Full Vote is a WHIG VICTORY.

VI. That NEW-YORK EXPECTS EVERY WHIG TO DO HIS DUTY.

7 100 Dollars Reward-Take Warning. The above reward will be paid to any individual who will furnish information that will lead to the conviction of any person who is guilty of illegal voting at the ensuing election By order of the Dem. Whig Gen. Committee.

Offering to vote illegally is a State Prison offence, and the Vigilance Committees of the different Districts are directed to detail a sufficient number of its members for the purpose of following suspected persons.

Whigs of New York! You can if you will! Why will you not Go the whole ticket; draw out every Whig vote and this evening's sun shall set on a glorious victory for Law and Order, Home Industry and Harry Clay. Do it, and you gladden the breast of every Whig from the St. John to the Sabine! Shrink from the struggle under such favorable auspices, and your friends will be ashamed of, your adversaries despise and trample on you! Every thing depends on your energy To-DAY.

To-day! To-day! Vote Early!

The days are short, and sunset closes the Poll at an early hour. Hundreds will be waiting around the Ballot-Boxes this evening when the Inspectors close the Polls. Will you be among them ?-you? Oh no! GO THIS MORNING when all is clear and peaceful, and no absurd rumor frightens those you leave at home. VOTE NOW, and then go to your business, if you will not assist by calling on your acquaintances or standing at the Polls.

We learn from undoubted authority that tickets are in circulation purporting to be Whig but with the Loco-Foco candidate on for County Clerk and also with the Native American for the same office. We hope our Whig friends will look well to their tickets, and not suffer one of our best and truest friends to be defeated by this device. Let no consideration induce you to divide your ticket!

Inspectors !

Canvass carefully! There are all manner of splits, and they will be voted. If you guess a vote is 'regular,' because you see the leading candidates of one or the other party at the head, you will do injustice. Count off your Tickets as you please to see how they run, but look them through closely before you make up your official result. We know not which side will gain or lose by the splits, but it is obvious that effect should be given to the will of the People.

WHIGS! how can you support the 'American' ticket? How is Quackenboss, who till now never grumbled at the School Law or any of the measures of Tammany, a better American than MORRIS FRANKLIN? What are Whigs to gain by voting for Loco-Focos?

Fifth Wards! you have a tarnished character to restore to-day! We ought to give Two Thousand Majority for the whole Whig Ticket! We can !--let us do it !

SEVENTH WARD! do n't be overborne by Island the 'long-shore men! Get out all the Whig votes and keep out all the Illegals, and you will have a clear majority!

IN NINTH WARD! the Whig Ticket must lead your Poll this evening! Work, and it is a done

Old FIFTEENTH! the Whig Cause draws on you for that Eight Hundred majority! Never say a word, but let it come!

Whigs of the Seventeenth Ward! Look out for the 'Flying Artillery' who rendezvous in your Ward and expect to pour in five hundred Illegal and Double Votes on you to-day! Be early, active and watchful at each one of your own Polls! and send out men who know the rascals of your Ward to detect them Double Voting elsewhere! Be stirring early, and keep an eye on the Loco 'Head-Quarters!' Watch them! Challenge!

We hear of lots of new comers in town; look sharp for them at the Polls! Let us not be swindled by thousands as we were last Spring .-If you can do no palpable good at your own poll, look after your tardy friends throughout the city, and keep moving from one poll to another. It your eye lights on an Illegal or Double Voter, expose him at once and have him arrested. Let us have every man of the rascals in prison before sunset! A few examples will be of great service.

IT Look out for Votes with more than THIRTEEN names for Assembly! We hear this fraud is attempted by the Loco-Focos. Count the names for Assembly.

Those fellows from Philadelphia must not attempt to vote here—there are too many eyes upon them. Beware!

Whigs of Kings! You have a noble Ticket -nobody pretends to find fault with it. Then why not elect it? You can if you will! Do not the Underwriters a present of $150. The crew of the brig come over here till you have voted. Rally in your had been sick with the Yellow Fever, and many had died strength, and show what you will do for CLAY in the great contest!

be the destination of the U. S. ship Dale.

Since the Whigs have no room in the City capacious enough to hold half of a County Meetng, suppose we engage Tammany? The Locos have deserted it, and gone into the Park, what there are left of them. Then why should n't the Whigs take Tammany? They know there that we will use it well, and they can't be so like the dog-in-the-manger as neither to use it themselves nor suffer others. Messrs. of Whig General Com. mittee! please engage Tammany Hall to celebrate the Whig victory to-morrow evening! It will be too late to-night when the votes are counted.

What means the moving of cart-loads of Beds from the Old Slip Watch-House late on Sunday night? Some fraudulent voting is evidently meditated! Whigs of the Seventeenth Ward! challenge closely!

We hear that the Tammany Committee have stricken off the names of Shaler and Suydam from their Assembly ballots, because they would not decline the Subterranean nomination .- Per contra, the Calhoun men scratch back.

The Whigs across the Hudson from us (and they are good and true ones, notwithstanding their defeat last month,) held a meeting at North Bergen on Saturday evening, and formed a "Hudson County Clay Club." The officers elected are as follows:

LEBBEUS CHAPMAN, of Jersey City, President; Jacob Van Winke, Dr. Wm. Hornblower, David Jones, and C. C. Beroleman, Vice Presidents; James Welsh, Recording Secretary; F. R. Betts, of Jersey City, Corresponding Secretary; Judge C. Van Winkle, Treasurer; D. B. Wakeman, Morris Smith, A. Spear, Jacob Lose, and Arch'd G. Welsh, Executive Committee.

Gen. Cass was nominated for next President by a Loco-Foco meeting at Zanesville, Ohio, on the 1st inst. It was a small affair. The People of that quarter go mostly for one HENRY CLAY of Kentucky. The Loco leaders are for Van; the rank and file are sulky and have come to a dead halt; but they won't go the Cass movement, suspecting it is a trick to rope them in for Van Buren. Our correspondent at Zanesville says Van will get the vote in the Loco National Convention and Clay in the Electoral College-each without much trouble.

I A correspondent complains that he and others had old Sunday papers imposed on them for new ones at The Plebeian office last Sunday. They were not copies of The Plebeian-the same slang fills that paper so incessantly that you can hardly tell a new from an old one.

cided majority. Col. R. M. Johnson visited Montpelier on his Eastern tour, and was enthusiastically welcomed by all parties. He was received by a large concourse of citizens in the Representatives' Hall, the Governor presiding, and the Legislature in attendance. Gov. Mattocks's address is so short and pithy that we must give it: Col. Johnson: Sir-In behalf of the Legislature of Vermout, and in the name of the entire population of this honest ittle State, I bid you welcome to this their capitol.

Sir, you are a Statesman and a Soldier. At the Thame you led a charge with a dashing gallantry, that has never, never been surpassed. You have fought and bled-ay, bled -in Freedom's cause. You are brave and generous to a proverb. Can there be any higher praise? He took them quite by surprise, so that they had no time to ring the bells and fire their cannon. He addressed the citizens of the place in the Church. He spoke of the growing prosperity of the West and of the reception he had every where met with in the most enthusiastic terms. He said that Burgoyne had declared he could narch with three regiments from one end of the British Colonies to the other; but he was compelled to surrender before he reached the plams of Saratoga. He was greeted with three cheers when he sat down. His progress is like a triumphal march, and the "old man eloquent" seems to enjoy his Western tour greatly. To the Public.

The name of the undersigned having been placed before the electors of the city and county of New-York as a candidate for the effice of Sheriff, upon the regular Democratic Republican ticket, he could reasonably expect nothing less than an attack upon his personal character in the opposition papers; but he never could have conceived that among them were men base enough to put forth such flase and malicious charges as are made against him in the Tribune of this morning. I am there charged with having formerly resided in the town of Bethel, Conn., of having been there "a most inveterate and pestilent gembler," guilty of "very dishonorable acts," and of having "at last disappeared between two days." It is perhaps only necessary for me to assure my Democratic fellow citizens that the writer of the letter alluded to in the Tribune. To the Public. haps only necessary for me to assure my Democratic fellow citizens that the writer of the letter alluded to in the Tribune, if such a setter exists at all, is a base liar and a heartless scoundrel. I never resided in Bethel, nor even in the same country! My residence, while in Connecticut, was in New-Haven country. To show to my fellow citizens of New-York the standing which I held in Connecticut, both moral and political, I am enabled to present the following testimonials.

HENRY C. ATWOOD.

Oxford, Conn., Oct. 30th, A. D. 1813.

To all whom it may concern, the following statement is made and presented for consideration:—Henry C. Atwood, Esq., now of the city of New-York, in the State of New-York, was late for several years a resident of this place.—While here, for several years, he was an inn holder, in which canacity his business was vensity. Juneanalt capacity his business was extensive, (unusually so for a country situation,) and to his customers of good character he gave the most consummate satisfaction. It is to be remarked that on it this capacity is sustained through the approbation of the public authorities; this in the following order: The Justice public authorities; this in the following order: The Justices of the Peace of the county, residing in the town, together with the Select Men, Constables and Grand Juros of the town, meet and nominate; the nominations so made must be confirmed by the County Court. As I was a member of the board successively, I am qualified to say that at three at least of such meetings at which I was present as a member, Mr. Atwood's nomination was unanimously and most cordially sustained, which circumstance shows the high regard entertained for him in this community in that capacity. tained, which circumstance shows the high regard entertained for him in this community in that capacity.

For a considerable time before his departure from this place, he held the office of Postmaster, wherein, for any thing I know, he acted in strict integrity to his trust and to the very general satisfaction of the citizens of the town. Residing very near him as I did, had the circumstances of his situation been different from what I have stated, I should have known it, and having known them to be different, I should not now state as I do. I write this believing the same to be fact.

Mr. Atwood, through the whole of his career here, was in politics a Democrat—a decided, devoted, ardent, zealous, working Democrat.

working Democrat.

Town Clerk of Oxford, Justice of the Peace for New-Haven
County, late Clerk of the House of Representatives, Connecticut Legislature.
The above forwarded on application and request of Mr.
Daniel R. Lecon.

N. J. W.

We, the undersigned, inhabitants of the town of Oxford, having been well acquainted with the character and standing of Mr. Henry C. Atwood, former Postmaster of this place, do say that his standing while here was equal to that of other good citizens; and as to his character politically, he has always been an unvielding and unflinching Democrat.

CHAUNCEY M. PLATT, Town Treas'r. MARK WOOSTER, Sheriff's Deputy. SHELDON CHURCH, Select Man. NEW-HAVEN, Conn., Oct. 30th, 1843.

This is to certify that we, the undersigntd critizens of New-Haven, were well sequainted with Henry C. Atwood, Esq., while residing in the town of Oxford; in this county; we considered his character good, and believed him to be a sterling and unswerving supporter of Democratic principles.

CHARLES A. INGERSOLL, WM. H, ELLIS, SAMUEL BISHOP.

This is to certify that I have known Mr. Atwood for the last fifteen years as a firm Democrat; and have never heard any thing against his moral character.

MINOTT OSBORN, Editor N. H. Register. Although not personally acquainted with Mr. Atwood, yet have always understood, while residing in this county, that I have always understood, while residing in this county, and has ever been an ar he sustained a good moral character, and has ever been an ar R. I. INGERSOLL.

There, readers! You have Mr. Atwood's whole story: does it meet the necessities of the case? Does it not answer exactly to our description in our last? Do not the certifiers lay great stress on their client's political character (which nobody thought of disputing,) and pass more lightly over his moral character? But the evidence is before you-judge for yourselves!

has been supposed to be dead by his friends, who may now aid him, his case being known. The name of one of the prisoners shot in the massacre at the Salada, has been printed Edward Este. We are told that it should be Edward Eetz. He is said to have belonged

We give these details, which we have been at some trouble to gather, for the sake of the friends of the unfortunate prisoners now in Mexico, and for the prisoners themselves.

THE OREGON COLONY .- We learn from gentle. men who have returned from the mountains, that the Oregon Emigrating Expedition, when last heard from, had taken the Southwest pass to Fort Hall, from thence they were about twelve days' travel. They were going on rapidly, and without having suffered any disaster. At Fort Hall they would necessarily be forced to leave their wagons -of which they had 150 in the train-and then the real difficulties and fatigues of the journey would commence. They were sanguine of reaching the Columbia before the winter set in. Of all the persons who started in the expedition, only

I Solomon Shoemaker was convicted of the murder of his brother Elias before the Supreme Court of Ohio sitting at Zanesville the 1st inst. The murder took place June 29th, 1842. The culprit was ably defended by Hon. Alex. Harper and R. Still, who tried to obtain a new trial next morning after the verdict, but failed. The verdict is generally approved The convict is to be hung on the 12th of January next. The whole panel was exhausted on the trial by the prisoner's challenges, and four talesmen were requisite. BY THIS MORNING'S MAIL.

Things in Philadelphia, Correspondence of The N. Y. Tribune. PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 6-P. M. At a meeting of the Tyler party in Philadelphia on Saturday, the following odd resolution was passed, among others:
"Resolved, That as General Jackson was elected President of the United States in '32, upon his Veto of the Whig Monster Bank, that President Tyler can be elected with the same ease in '44, upon his two Vetoes of Mr. Clay's Bills for chartering a Bank of the United States!" As a cheering sign of the times, I would state that the Bank of Pennsylvania has commenced discounting again, and is now doing an active business. No wonder her stock

HEALTH OF THE CITY.—During the week ending Saturday, 87 deaths occurred in the city and districts.

MURDER.—Wm. Morris, the colored man beaten a few days since by some white men in the lower part of the City, died this morning from the injuries received. The murder-

BANK DIVIDENDS .- A number of the Philadelphia Banks declared half yearly dividends this day.

Opposition.—A small steamboat, called the Appaquinamink, has commenced running between this city and Trenton, carrying passengers at 11½ cents less than the Camden and Amboy railroad line. She is too diminutive, however, to answer the purpose.

STOCKS.—The operations in our stock marker to-day were again large, and at generally improved rates. State Fives were active at the Second Board at 642, an improvement of 1 over Saturday's sales. Upwards of $40,000 were taken. Girard Bank advanced; Union Bank of Tennessee; Wilmington Railroad; Philadelphia Bank declined . No Pennsylvania Bank sold.

BOARD OF ASSISTANT ALDERMEN.-Present C. . Brown, Esq. President and a quorum. The minutes of the preceding meeting were read and ap-

An invitation to attend the annual anniversary of the Philomathean Society was received and accepted. Several petitions were referred to the committees designated—none, however, of any public importance was received.

Reports.—In favor of rebuilding pier No. 27, East River; adopted. In favor of assigning to John J. Boyd and North River, to be used by the Havre line of packets; adopted, after several amendments to the same had been lost. In favor of leasing property No. 5 Rose-street, to W. Cax-bes; adopted. In favor of repealing the resolution passed Feb. 1840, granting the exclusive use of Lent's Landing and Exchange slip to one line of tow and steam boats; adopted. In favor of concurring with the Board of Aldermen, in flagging sidewalks in 20th and 27th streets between the 3d and fourth avenues; adopted. Resignation of S. Thos. Beekman, as a measurer of Bituminous coal; adopted.

A communication was received from the Counsel to the Corporation, stating that Messrs. Britton, Caserley & Townsend had commenced a suit against the City Government for a violation of the street contract, and asking additional counsel engaged in the matter—they having engaged a host of talent to prosecute their claim. The subject was referred to the law committee, after a long debate on the propriety of referring it to them with or without power-a portion of the committee being in favor of having the whole matter acted on by the Board itself.

A communication was received from the Commissioners of the Alms House, stating that a building now erecting on Blackwell's Island, for the accommodation of prisoners, has been prosecuted without any authority from them; referred to the committee on charity and alms.

Rports of the committee on piers, wharves and slips, re-commending the abolishment of the office of Dock-Master of the 12th ward. The whole amount received from the five piers in that ward amounts to but $95, while the Dock-Master receives $400 salary ; laid on the table. Resolutions-That all further work on the building above mentioned on Blackwell's Island be suspended until further orders from the Common Council; referred. To let the up per part of Engine House in Horatio street for 5 years for a public school; referred. That the plot of ground No. 68 Elm st. be appropriated for the purposes of a public school; referred. To have the floor of room No. 8 City Hall covered with oil cloth, &c; adopted. That F. A. Ryderback be appointed a City Weigher: referred.

That a Special Committee of three be appointed to inquire into the expediency of reorganizing the Croton Water Department, and to report an ordinance therefor. Adopted, and Messrs. Charles Pettigrew and W. Dodge appointed said

The Board then adjourned until Monday evening next.

ROBBERY, FIRE AND DEATH .- On Friday night last about 11 o'clock, the house of Mr. Thomas | Britannia about 1200 bales had been sold, mostly for shipwas discovered to be on fire in the attic room, Mr. Yates being out on duty at the time. On hearing of the fire he hastened home, and discovered that it had been extinguished, that his money had been stolen from a drawer of his bureau, and that one of his sons, George W. Yates, a boy of 7 years of age, had been very badly hurt in the abdomen and lower limbs, while in bed in the attic, the bed having been found completely enveloped in flames. It appeared that about 7 o'clock an elder son had put George and a still younger son of Mr. Yates to bed in the attic room and that all then was safe. That about 10 o'clock at night a strange colored woman was seen to come out of the house on the stoop and go off. The eldest son then ran up stairs and discovered that the bureau drawer had been broken open and the money gone, and the boys safely in bed and sound asleep; the eldest son on examining the apartment, having, how ever, looked under the bed with a lighted candle. Whether any fire was then communicated is unknown, but about 11 o'clock the alarm of fire was heard, and the eldest son going up to the attic found the bed of the boys in flames, the youngest boy missing, having escaped from the burning bed and George, the next youngest, lying on the bed nearly suffocated and speechless. He was taken out of bed, carried to a neighbor's house, and Dr. D. Wells sent for, who dressed the burns, but the boy died about I o'clock on Sunday morning. The Coroner, on Sunday evening, held an inqest on the body of George W. Yates, the jury finding that the deceased came to his death by accidental burning.

A NEW SLOOP-OF-WAR .- The U. S. sloop-ofwar Portsmouth has been launched at Portsmouth, N. H. She was drafted and constructed by Josiah Barker, Esq., the the Naval Constructor, and finished by Mr. B. F. Delano, foreman. Her length from billet-head to taffrail is 172 feet; extreme breadth 38 feet 3 inches; hight from underside of keel to lop of ham-rail 33 feet 9 in. Her armament consists of 18 32-pound chambered guas and 4 8-inch Paixhan guns; A lot of 3000 bushels is held higher. Oats are still imweight of metal to broadside 712 lbs.; tonnage, (custom- proving. Out of store 31 cents was refused. We quote house measure) 1020 85-95 tous.

From M. Milliken, Cutler to the Royal Navy; 301 Strand. The Metallic Tablet, in its use, is simple, having the same effect na razor as a hone, without using oil or water, and in a tenth part of the time. After five years' trial I can recommend it with perfect confidence.

M. Millikin.

From Professor Griscom and Dr. Valentine Mott.

George Saunders' Imperial Strop.—We can freely testify to its value. The side which he calls the Metallic Tablet is, as far as we know, a thing of his own introduction into this country; it appears to be an excellent, convenient substitute for a hone, and operates on the same principle as steel does upon a table-knile, but with far greater smoothness and certainty; it saves the unpleasant necessity of oil and water, to assist in whetting. The other three sides of the Strop are extremely well finished, flat, smooth, and almost elastic, preserving the razor from that roundness of edge which so soon destroys its keenness.

are above the prices on this side: " LIVERPOOL, October 18, 1843. "Corron.-There has been a very extensive business done, and prices have farther advanced about id per lb. The sales at Liverpool in the week ending Friday last were upward of 91,000 bales, of which speculators took more than one-half. The market has now, however, become quiet, and the sales yesterday only figured at 1500 bales, 700 being on speculation. Prices remain unaltered.

"The prices of American Stocks continue to improve. and holders in general are rather unwilling sellers at present rates. The demand runs chiefly on New-York State, Ohio, and Pennsylvania. The latter has been done to-day at 60; Ohio at 89; New-York 5s at 92 a 921; Maryland 5s in less inquiry at 55. A small lot of Illinois 6s has brought 32.
